

The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, MAY 23. 1738.

908.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Buda, May 1. O. S.

LETTERS of the 25th ult. from Orsova say, that a Body of 14,000 Turks was returned to the Neighbourhood of the Fort of St. Elizabeth, with a Design, as it is supposed, to make a fresh Attack upon that Place; and that thereupon a Reinforcement was sent thither, and other Dispositions made to secure it from all manner of Surprise. PS. We just now hear, that there has been a very smart Encounter near Orsova, between the Infidels and some Imperial Troops, of which we don't yet know the Particulars; only 'tis said, that the Son of the Bashaw of Widdin was killed in the Action, and that then the Turks repassed the Danube.

Vienna, May 6. The Great Duke of Tuscany and Velt Marshal de Konigsegg, will certainly set out next Week directly for Belgrade, where they will stay till the Army which is to be form'd by the Velt Marshal de Wallis is assembled; and they say, that it is now determined that the Velt Marshal de Khevenhuller, is to remain here to preside in the Aulick Council of War during Count Konigsegg's Absence.

Rome, April 29. Monday last the Pope, in a private Consistory, granted Cardinal Acquaviva's Demand of the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples; and Yesterday it was resolved, in a Congregation of the Pope and all the Cardinals, that the said Investiture should be performed on the 8th of May, in a Consistory to be then held for that Purpose; at which Time the Pope is to confer the Dignity of Cardinals upon the Seigniors Passionei and Delfi, his Nuncios at Vienna, and in France.

Lisbon, April 29. Two Ships are arrived here in ten Weeks and four Days from the Bay of All-Saints in Brazil; and we hear, that the whole Fleet which is expected from thence in August next, will bring, besides other Commodities, 50,000 Chests of Sugar, and 4000 Rolls of Tobacco. The Fleet from Pernambuco is also expected in July next.

Venice, May 6. Thursday last the Doge married the Sea, with the usual Ceremony. Seignior Maccigno, who is appointed Ambassador Extraordinary to the King Don Carlos, is preparing to set out for Palma Nuova, to meet and Compliment his new Spouse: His Excellency will be accompany'd by two hundred Gentlemen; and his Domesticks, to the Number of above 80, will be clad in the richest Livery. All the Foreign Ministers who are here, are likewise preparing to set out for the same Place; where the Queen will be received by the Discharge of Cannon; as she will also in all the other Towns of the Republick through which she is to pass: Her Expences through these Territories will be defray'd by the Republick, which has ordered proper Relays of Horses to be kept in Readiness for her to the Number of 200; and that wherever the Queen stops she be diverted with Operas and Balls: Her Guard from Palma Nuova, will consist of 1000 Foot, 500 Dragoons, and 200 Grenadiers.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, May 16.

Proceedings of the Venerable Assembly.

Thursday May 11 Forenoon, The most Hon. the Marquis of Lothian, his Majesty's Commissioner, walked in Procession from his Lodgings to the New Church, attended as follows;

The Macers, their Maces in Mourning.

Gentlemen Ushers two and two.

The Heritable Usher alone.

His Grace's Pur'e Bearer.

His Grace the High Commissioner.

His Grace's Pages.

The Nobility and other Persons of Distinction two and two.

His Grace's Footmen two and two, closed the Procession, who (all in deep Mourning) passed thro' the City Guard drawn up in two Lines, headed by the three Captains, and were received by the Right Hon. the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council at the Church Door. His Grace, from his Majesty's Seat, heard a Sermon by the Rev. Mr. Neil Campbell, Principal of the University of Glasgow, and Moderator of the last Assembly. After which they in a Body, retired to the New Church Isle, and after Prayers, and making up the Rolls of Commissioners from the several Presbyteries, Universities, and Burghs, they proceeded to the Choice of a Moderator; the Candidates were Mr. Thomas Davidson, one of the Ministers of Dundee, and Mr. James Ramsay, Minister at Kelfo, and the latter was elected, 152 against 49. Mr. Ramsay having accordingly taken the Chair, and the General Assembly being constitute, his Majesty's Commission to his Grace was respectfully read, and, with the profoundest Reverence, the following Letter from the King.

GEORGE R.

Right Reverend and Well-beloved, We greet you well.

Being perswaded that you come together with the same good Dispositions, which We have experienced in your former Assemblies, to promote, as much as in you lies, Religion and Piety, and the true Interest of the Church of which you are Members: Being also well satisfied of your Loyalty and Affection for Our Person and Government, and of your Zeal for the Good of your Country, We very willingly countenance your present Meeting with our Approbation and Royal Authority; assuring you of our fix'd Resolution to maintain the Church of Scotland, as established by Law, in the full Enjoyment of all its just Rights and Privileges.

The great and desirable Ends for which you are now assembled, being chiefly to consult upon proper Measures for securing the Peace and Welfare of the Church, the Advancement of Piety and Virtue, the suppressing of Vice and Immorality, and the preventing the Growth of Popery, you may be assured of our Support and Concurrence in whatever may most effectually conduce thereto; and as the Success of your Endeavours for these good Purposes will, under God, in a great measure, depend upon the Wisdom and Unanimity of your Councils, we must earnestly recommend it to you, to preserve in all your Debates that Moderation, and brotherly Love and Charity, which are becoming to Venerable an Assembly, and which will further entitle you to our Royal Favour.

We have again appointed our Right Trusty and entirely beloved Cousin, William Marquis of Lothian, to represent our Royal Person in your Assembly; not doubting but his known Zeal for our Service, and his affectionate Concern for the Prosperity of the Church of Scotland, will make our Choice of him very acceptable to you, and that he will have your most hearty and cheerful Assistance in bringing this your Meeting to a happy Conclusion: And so We bid you heartily Farewell. Given at our Court at St. James's the 3d Day of May 1738, in the Eleventh Year of our Reign. By his Majesty's Command,

HOLLIS NEWCASTLE.

His Grace, from the Throne, made a very fine Speech to the Assembly; which was returned by the Moderator. Then a Committee was appointed to draw up a most dutiful and loyal Answer to the Royal Letter; and Committees for Overtures and Bills; also for revising Commissions to Members. Adjourned till Friday: Which was spent in Prayer; only that Mr. George Wishart was appointed to preach before his Grace next Sunday Forenoon; Mr. John M'Cormock of St. Andrews, Afternoon; Mr. John Scot of Dumfries, on Sunday the 21st, Forenoon; and Mr. Alexander Howie of Methlick, Afternoon. Heard read a Letter from his Grace the Duke of Gordon, recommending Mr. William Irvine as an itinerant Preacher, which was remitted to the Committee on the Royal Bounty, with proper Instructions.

Saturday. Unanimously approved of the Draught of the Answer to the King's Letter, which Answer his Grace promised to forward under his Cover. Applications having been made for the Offices of Procurator and Principal Clerk of the Church, on a Supposition the same would be vacated, as inconsistent with another Office lately conferred on the Gentleman who holds the former, after hearing read the Sentiments of many Synods and Presbyteries on that Subject, viz. That there should be no Alteration on that Pretext; the Assembly, to prevent all Trouble from such future Applications, did resolve and declare accordingly (on a Division) 170 against 6.

IRELAND.

Dublin, May 16. Last Week a Hearth Money Collector in Fingall, went to distrain a Cabbie of 2 s but the poor People having Notice of his coming, hid their Goods, the Collector pretending to be enraged challenged the Man to Fight, and he stripping to Box, the Collector seized the Cloaths and went off.

Last Friday John Cornell, Esq; second Engineer, set out for Kinsale to repair the Fort, and to mount the Guns of that Garrison.

On Sunday last a considerable Quantity of Brandy and Tobacco was seized in Francis-street, and brought to the Stores.

We hear from Waterford, that the Port Mahon Man of War will sail for England this Week in order to be paid.

Yesterday Henry Cavendish, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, went into the Country for the Summer Season.

This Week the Right Hon. the Lord Cathcart, Colonel of the Carbaniers, goes down to the King's County, in order to be at the Head of his Regiment, which we hear, is to be reviewed next Month by Lieutenant General Pierce.

Some of the honest Englishman's Wits, in one of the Papers, gave Rise to the following Verses.

The honest Irishman's WISH.

An Englishman wish! what the D—l to do?
They have what they please, while they closely pursue
The Trade of Beef, Wool, Manufactures and Fishing,
And Ireland is left the whole Trade of free—wishing.
As Ireland (tho' poor) is a Kingdom to me,
From several Follies I wish it was free.
The Folly of wearing Cloaths, Druggets, or Kerseys,
Or any Thing Woollen imported o—ver Seas;
Whilst our own Irish Wool (from the Fleece, or the Comb
Exported) might be manufactur'd at home.
The Folly of bringing great Folks to our Table,
And treating above what we're decently able;
Tho' we know all the Thanks, we will get for our Pains,
Is, they'll still bleed us on, while a Symptom remains.
The Folly of raising up Rents to a Height,
That the Tenant must break for the Landlord's
Delight;
Whilst all his Advantage will scarcely procure
Twelve Flasks of a Night, or twelve Nights of a
Wh—
The Folly of Pride; for we're always allow'd
To be, first proud of nothing; then, proud of b'ing proud.
Of Brandy, or Wine, I could wish to have none,
Whether genuine or brew'd from the Loyre or Garrone.
Were we but as wise as we're poor, I should think
Good Beer, Ale, and Whiskey, might serve us for Drink.
To mend all these Follies, I wish they would try,
And if they won't do't, — let them perish, say I.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bath, May 17. They have already begun pulling down the Old Play-house, and other Houses adjoining, which have been purchased as a spacious and proper Place to build the Infirmary on. Near 2000 l. is already subscribed towards carrying on so laudable an Undertaking.

Norwich, May 20. Last Thursday one Samuel Smith of Morley St. Peter, was committed to the Castle, for stealing three Cows and a Heifer, from poor Man in Kenne in Cambridgeshire, (being his whole Stock) which he sold to his Neighbours. He offered Ten Pounds when he was apprehended not to be prosecuted. He was tried about three Years since at Cambridge Assizes, and convicted of stealing three Cows, and ordered to be transported, but broke out of the Cattle there.

On Monday next the Races begin on Moushold-Heath: There are Eight Horses entered, and several more will enter this Day: The Preparations for the Country Gentlemen and others, are the greatest that ever were known, there being near 30 Booths now built, some of which cost above 20 l building, having Galleries on the Tops for Gentlemen and Ladies to see the whole Course.

The only short and infallible Cure

For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, who arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable Mistake is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble,

Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Lightfitt, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
